Liability protection for OK Board members and OK volunteer facilitators

Anyone involved in the management of the organization – including directors, officers, employees and volunteers could be held personally liable for the errors and/or omissions involved in the management of the organization.

Directors and officers, employees and volunteers can be sued for a range of issues including fiduciary duty breaches, failure to fulfill the organizations mission, misuse of funds, or improper conduct of board members, employees and volunteers.

To protect these individuals, Opportunity Knocks has purchased a Directors & Officers, and an Employment Practices Liability policy. This policy will provide defense cost along with settlements and judgments arising out of lawsuits and wrongful act allegations brought against the organization.
